Mendoza, and The Andes

A breathtaking tour to the highest mountains of our province. We will drive Route 82 through the Cacheuta road tunnel and then Route 7 (the route to Chile). Tour highlights include Potrerillos Dike, Potrerillos village, Uspallata village, the historical bridge of Picheuta, Punta de Vacas, Los Penitentes ski resort, Puente del Inca (a natural arch that forms a bridge over a mountain river), the Aconcagua lookout (Aconcagua is the highest mountain in the Americas). We will have lunch at a restaurant in the mountains (lunch not included in tour price). The last stop of the tour is Las Cuevas, the mountain village located just before the border with Chile.

Total tour distance: 211 miles

*Full-day tour. Meals not included.

San Rafael, The Atuel Canyon and Valle Grande

The tour starts early in the morning. We will drive South along Route 40 for 150 miles. After a short visit to the city of San Rafael, we will drive West along Route 40 to the dike and the village known as El Nihuil. Here, we will start our way down the Atuel Canyon, a natural canyon formed by the action of wind and water from the Atuel River. The canyon ends in the valley known as Valle Grande (great valley), which hosts another dam for hydroelectric power generation. We will stop for lunch in Los Nihuales (lunch is not included).

Total tour distance: 400 miles

*Full-day tour. Meals not included.

USD 40.-

Mendoza and Villavicencio Natural Reserve

We will leave the city and follow old Route 40 to the North. After the Canota monument (which commemorates the site where the liberating army divided into columns before crossing the Andes on its way to liberate Chile) we will arrive in Pampa de Canota and then drive pass the famous bottling facilities. Finally, we will arrive in Villavicencio, a natural reserve that hosts the beautiful gardens of the old Villavicencio Hot Springs Hotel—the emblematic hotel featured in the label of Villavicencio™ mineral water—and a splendid viewpoint of the area.

Total tour distance: 62 miles.

*half-day morning tour.
